

2019 Wilson Disabilities Awareness Awards - Nominations Open!

Celebration Luncheon held on Thursday - October 17, 2019

The Wilson Committee for Persons with Disabilities is seeking nominations for the annual celebration of Disabilities Employment Awareness Month. The awards recognize those with disabilities that contribute to the community, disabled employees doing a fantastic job, employers who empower the disabled to keep working, and educators, professionals and advocates who go above and beyond to help the disabled community.

You are encouraged to submit a nomination to the Wilson Committee for Persons with Disabilities. It's so easy to do! Complete the enclosed 1 page form and attach a nomination letter telling us the wonderful story of your nominee. Award nominations may be submitted by individuals, employees, employers, organizations, businesses, friends and family members. The award categories are:

- Employee of the Year
- Employer of the Year
- Advocate of the Year
- Professional of the Year
- Educator of the Year

You and your nominee will be invited to the celebration awards luncheon on Thursday, October 17 held 12 noon - 1:30 pm. The luncheon celebration allows many businesses and employees to attend during their lunch hour. Tickets for the luncheon may be purchased for $15 per person in the City of Wilson's Human Relations Office, located at 104 Goldsboro Street, City Hall. This event is open to the public. Seating is limited and tickets sell out fast.

Nominations due by: Thursday - September 26, 2019.

Sponsored by the Wilson Committee for Persons with Disabilities
 Tickets on sale in the Human Relations Office - 104 Goldsboro Street
 Questions? Call (252) 399-2308
 Website: WilsonNC.org

To learn more about National Disability Employment Awareness Month you can visit the governmental website: www.dol.gov