General Information:

Incorporated in 1849, Wilson, North Carolina, is ideally situated in Eastern North Carolina, only 50 miles east of Raleigh, the State's Capital, and 100 miles west of Atlantic Ocean.

Though a small City of only 18.9 square miles and 50,651 people, Wilson is a giant in the world of business.

Once a "Tobacco Town," this City, affectionately known by her citizens as the City of Beautiful Trees, has emerged as a wonderfully harmonious blend of agriculture and industry. In addition to being America's largest tobacco market and home to the largest antique dealership in the United States, Wilson is also North Carolina's largest farm market center and is an All-America City. This exceptional balance between agriculture, business, industry, education, recreation, and government can be matched only by the friendliness of the people.

An Equal Opportunity Employer, the City is firmly committed to the principles of Equal Employment Opportunity for all. The City selects and makes all personnel decisions based upon merit and individual qualifications without regard to sex, race, color, religion, national origin, age, or disability. If at any point in the selection process you believe discrimination has occurred, we ask that you contact the City's Human Resources & Risk Services Manager. Upon receipt or notification from any applicant (either internal or external) of alleged discrimination, the Human Resources & Risk Services Manager will conduct a formal investigation into the complaint. Applicants also have the right to contact the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission within 180 days after they feel discrimination has occurred, if they feel all other efforts have been exhausted.
